PASTOR DEEPA BENJAMIN IS RAISED FROM THE DEAD

HAVE THE GOD-KIND OF FAITH!

- Pastor Chris

“...Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith” (Mark 11:22-23).

You may say, “Everything depends on God. He’s the One who determines everything. If He wants me to live, I’ll live.” As nice and humble as this communication sounds, it’s wrong. Many have died unnecessarily by thinking and talking this way.

There are Christians who keep hoping that God will come into their situation, shake everything up, and make things all right. They say, “It’s up to God.” They talk this way because it helps them escape responsibility. But we do have a role to play in effecting the changes that we desire in our lives. It isn’t enough to hope God will someday make everything all right; you’ve got a role to play.

The profound words from the Master in our opening Scripture not only show us that we can change anything, but they also tell us how. Jesus said, “Have faith in God.” Some Bibles with a good marginal reference indicate that this can also read as “Have the faith of God.” In other words, “Have the God-kind of faith.” This is the kind of faith God operates to produce whatever He desires!

Jesus demonstrated this kind of faith and showed us how it functions. Mark 11:12-14 says, “And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry: And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.”

When Jesus faced a situation He didn’t like, He didn’t keep quiet about it. Instead, He spoke what He wanted. It’s important to note that the Bible specifically tells us Jesus spoke to the tree and His disciples heard it. He spoke out loud, not in His mind. This reveals a very important principle: the God-kind of faith speaks!

Expressing a similar thought, Paul declared in Romans 4:17, “...even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.” In other words, God calls things that do not exist into existence! He speaks forth what He wants to see!

Another important thing to note is that Jesus didn’t wait to see if there were any changes. He simply made the declaration and continued on His journey. Interestingly, nothing seemed to happen to the tree at the time He spoke; otherwise, His disciples would have noticed it. But Jesus knew something had happened and just went on His way.

Someone says, “I won’t believe it until I see it.” Well, that’s not how the God-kind of faith works. Believing comes ahead of seeing. If you don’t believe it, you’ll never see it. Hebrews 11:1 says, “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” When you’re functioning with the God-kind of faith, you just know you have what you’ve hoped for, regardless of any evidence to the contrary. Your faith in God’s Word is your evidence!

In the account from Mark 11, it wasn’t until the next morning that the changes became evident (see Mark 11:20-21). Then Jesus said, “Have the faith of God.” With the God-kind of faith, you can do much more than cause a tree to wither. You can speak to a mountain and tell it to move into the sea, and it’ll happen!

Your life and future are actually in your hands. If there’s a condition in your body that you don’t like, don’t tolerate it. Change it! It doesn’t matter how hopeless the case seems. With the God-kind of faith, you can change anything. Jesus said you will tell a mountain to move and it will!

Now, you may ask, “How can I get the God-kind of faith?” If you’re born again, you’ve got it already! God has dealt to every one of His children the measure of faith (Romans 12:3). This means you got it the day you were born again. All you need to do now is use it to cause the changes you desire in your life.

This is God’s desire for you! He doesn’t want you to be a victim. He wants you to come to the point where nothing moves you and you’re unfazed in the face of adversity because you know you can change anything!

A Living TESTIMONY

PASTOR DEEPA BENJAMIN IS RAISED FROM THE DEAD

Sometime in 2016, Pastor Deepa Benjamin began noticing alternating episodes of tingling and numbness in her hands. It didn't happen often, so she didn't pay attention to the situation. A year later, just after getting married to her beloved husband, she had cause to worry.

Pastor Deepa narrates: "At the shop with my husband, I noticed that it took me a long time to get change out of the purse. I clapped during worship but there was no sound. I would want to shake hands after service and my fingers would stiffen, unable to grasp anything, and I couldn't feel the person's touch. I wondered why my hands were not working. What was happening to me?"

Though worried, Pastor Deepa kept her concerns to herself. More distressing than the issue with her hands was the pain in her neck. Most nights, the pain was so intense that she needed to apply a balm and massage the area before she could sleep.

"Whenever the pain became so severe that I couldn't bear it, I would ask my husband to take me to the emergency room. They would give me painkillers intravenously and then we would return home. This happened now and then but I was praying that I would be divinely healed," she says.

Despite her struggles, Pastor Deepa's faith and trust in the Lord did not waiver. She remained steadfast in her ministry work with her husband. However, the condition would worsen in an unexpected twist.

"As ministers, we travel a lot," she discloses. "One day, we went to a remote village in India to minister. While preparing for an evening meeting, I went to the washroom and couldn't get up from the toilet. My legs felt like they were locked. I tried so hard but my legs were not working; there was no life in them."

"One day, we went to a remote village to minister. While preparing for an evening meeting, I went to the washroom and couldn't get up from the toilet. I tried so hard but my legs were not working; there was no life in them."

Her desperate cries for help brought Pastor Deepa's husband to her side, and he carried her from there. She tried all that she knew but there was no alleviating the pain and numbness. "Slowly, I lost all feeling from my arms to my legs. I couldn't walk properly. I moved like a robot," she recalls.

With time, it became so bad that she couldn't stand straight when she got out of bed. "I would brush and go through morning routines bowed over like that. My backbone was very weak and it took 4 to 5 hours each day before I could stand straight."

This trying ordeal continued for years with one symptom on the heels of another. Pastor Deepa gradually became a shadow of herself. Eventually, she consulted a neurologist in hopes of finding a solution. Following a medical examination and an MRI scan, the diagnosis stated that there was a tumor on her spine, between the C2 and C5.

Immediate surgery was recommended. Although the doctors couldn't guarantee a successful outcome, they were certain that she would be paralyzed and bedridden for the rest of her life without it.

After a successful 8-hour surgery, the prognosis looked good and it seemed Pastor Deepa would soon recover.

Shortly after the surgery

However, six days later, while going through post-operation recovery exercises at the hospital, she fell and became unconscious. A team of doctors rushed in and did all they could to revive her for about 25 minutes. When all failed, she was declared dead.

Her husband, Pastor Azee, was at the scene. Unfazed by the pronouncement, he connected to the internet and searched for a rebroadcast of the Healing Streams Live Healing Services. Playing the video, he placed the phone next to his wife's ear.

He excitedly reports: "When I got the news, I told myself that my wife won't die in the hospital. I knew she needed to be here; she had many more things to do for God. I played the video and I stood there praising the Lord because I knew He would give life to my wife. Seven and a half minutes later, my wife came back to life! I started to laugh."

It was a moment of wonderment. Joy filled the room because of this precious miracle. Pastor Deepa describes her supernatural out-of-body experience: "When I fell and closed my eyes in the hospital, I immediately opened my eyes in God's presence. There were two people there, and we were holding hands, laughing, and playing in a beautiful green garden. I never thought about my life on earth. Suddenly, I opened my eyes and I was back in the hospital bed. I had come back to life. I spent day and night listening to heavenly music to stay in that atmosphere."

Awestruck, the doctors insisted on keeping Pastor Deepa admitted for observation, even though she appeared to have fully recovered. As news of her coming back to life spread throughout the hospital, other patients sought her out for prayers. "People queued, and I was ministering to the sick from my hospital bed. I'm a living testimony that Jesus is alive, and He is doing marvelous things in our lives," she says gleefully.

"People queued, and I was ministering to the sick from my hospital bed. I'm a living testimony that Jesus is alive, and He is doing marvelous things in our lives."

It's been several months since this glorious encounter and Pastor Deepa's life has only gone from glory to glory. Her return from the brink of death is a testament and celebration of the efficacy of God's power and love.

Thankful and joyous for her miracle, she enthuses, "Pastor Chris, I love you so much. Thank you for being a figure of God's love in our lives. May God bless you and cause the healing to the nations mandate to prosper through you in the days ahead."

Concluding with encouragement for those who require healing, she says, "Put your faith in the Lord. Your faith pleases the Lord. It is the only thing that will connect you to your miracle. Don't give up. You are a victor in Christ."

The devils of affliction have no chance against the restorative and transformative force of the Holy Spirit as it sweeps through the nations, eliminating all forms of sickness and bondage. In mere moments, blind eyes receive sight, dead limbs regain strength, failing organs are revitalized, and troubled minds are restored.

Throughout the memorable weekend, many experience miracle moments during exhortations from senior Healing School ministers, stirring testimony segments, and resplendent praise sessions led by Loveworld Singers. The man of God – Pastor Chris – extols the Word of God and expresses the Father's overwhelming love and constant desire to see all men free from sin and disease.

For over a year, Joshua Zeng from China suffered a heart condition that left him in poor health. He battled fatigue and restrictions to his movement and daily activities. His heart, liver, spleen, lungs, and kidneys were all affected. Several medications and alternative therapies proved abortive. As his pain and difficulties increased, Joshua reached a point where he could no longer walk. Filled with anxiety and worry, he was unable to live life to the fullest.

Soon, Joshua's wife heard about the Healing Streams and registered him, believing their miracle was within reach.

Participating from his home, Joshua had a remarkable experience that resulted in healing and restoration of his body. "As the man of God ministered to me, I felt a constant flow of energy move through my body from head to toe. Immediately, I jumped off my seat, lifted my hands, and rejoiced. I received my healing instantly and my body buzzed with new energy," he recounts.

Joshua recovered fully and regained his life. Every day is joyful, now that he can travel and do the things he loves again. He has resumed work and no longer needs medication. Praise God!

Maria from Finland felt sad when she was diagnosed with neuroendocrine tumors, an aggressive cancer that was gradually spreading to various parts of her body. It was an unpleasant phase in her life and home.

The condition took a toll on Maria physically and emotionally, forcing the once-independent woman to rely more and more on her loved ones just to get through each day. She eventually became bedridden, which was hard for her to bear. "Things got so hard for me that I was confirmed unfit for anything," she explains.

News of the Live Healing Services brought an unprecedented calm to the storms in Maria's life. Eager for a divine transformation, she joined the live broadcast and her faith was stirred as she got ready for her miracle. The power of God coursed through her body when Pastor Chris prayed for her on the online healing line. It was her moment of healing and restoration. Joyous for her new self, Maria testifies, "I am healed! I can do everything. I can travel and live a normal life."

Celebrating our TRIUMPHANT ENTRY INTO NATIONS THROUGH THE HEALING STREAMS

In 2020, with the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, our world changed in unprecedented ways. Through it all, the Church of Jesus Christ prevailed with prayer and prophecy. What the adversary had planned for the end became a glorious beginning. It marked the dawn of the Healing Streams Live Healing Services era.

The Healing Streams has made glorious impact in all nations of the world with ever-increasing reach and penetration into all places, demographics, and languages. Through the Healing Streams, we've gained access to many nations where we healed the sick, raised the dead, redeemed many from the forces of darkness in the world, and showed forth the praises and glory of God.

Now, all celebrate the Church's Triumphant Entry into the Nations through the Healing Streams (TENTH). As partners with the man of God, Pastor Chris, we have entered a season of thanksgiving, giving in multiples of tens as a memorial to the Lord. Many have joined this victorious jubilation and have remarkable testimonies.

Testifying of a great deliverance stemming from his partnership, Gozie from Nigeria says, "Being a Healing School partner has continuously brought me increased prosperity and countless victories. On the 30th of May, I received a distress call from my construction site that one of the workers accidentally fell into a 300-foot deep hole, and it was proving difficult to rescue him. Immediately, I declared that no death would be recorded around me because I am a partner. I sowed a seed for the Healing Streams, specifically for the worker's divine deliverance from death. Shortly after giving my financial seed, I received a call that the worker had been rescued from the pit and taken to a hospital. Though he initially appeared almost lifeless, he eventually recovered fully. I am convinced that this miraculous deliverance was a result of my partnership. I give God all the glory."

Move from glory to glory in your partnership and giving as you celebrate our TENTH with these milestones:

1. Make A Joyful Sound (Psalm 89:15 AMPC)
2. Raise A Banner (Psalm 20:5)
3. Give A Great Shout (Joshua 6:5)
4. Advance Against A Troop (Psalm 18:29 NIV)
5. Blow A Trumpet (Numbers 10:10)
6. Lift Up The Horn (Psalm 75:10 AMP)
7. Ride High In Triumph (Isaiah 58:14 NIV)
8. Triumph Gloriously (Exodus 15:21 ESV)

Take Healing Everywhere with Healing to the Nations Magazine

“Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.” (Luke 9:1-2,6)

Taking healing everywhere is a fulfillment of Scripture. Individuals, groups, churches, and ministries all over the world preach God's Word and heal the sick in every place through healing outreaches.

By carrying out a healing outreach with the Healing to the Nations Magazine, you connect others to healing and divine health, placing the miracle resource directly in the hands of those who need it most. Countless lives all over the world have been transformed through healing outreaches in various parts of the world, and many have amazing miracles as a result.

Christine from Qatar has a remarkable testimony to share: “In January, the Lord told me a specific amount to give for the Healing to the Nations Magazine. To raise the money, He instructed me to sell a gold bangle I received for my wedding 22 years ago, which I did. On March 15th, I started bleeding continuously. The doctors examined my uterus and told me that the lining was inflamed. It had swollen to more than 10 times the normal size. I called my pastor, and he prayed with me and told me to use the magazine. I read the magazine, took the confessions in it, and placed it on my womb. The pain and bleeding stopped. By the time I returned to the doctors, the uterus lining had shrunk back to perfection. My seed went ahead of me and nothing will stop me from continually taking healing everywhere.”

Join us and make a difference by taking healing outreaches to different places and peoples in your community and the world at large. Together, let's take healing everywhere.

FUN WAYS TO EXERCISE ANYWHERE

Health is wealth, and one of the ways to improve and maintain your health is by keeping your body fit through exercise. Exercise involves intentional activities and repeated movements that help you maintain a healthy weight, burn excess calories, strengthen your muscles, and keep your body in peak condition.

Also, exercising regularly strengthens the heart and bones, improves lung function, boosts mood, lowers blood pressure, reduces anxiety, increases energy, and improves sleep. Exercise can manage and reduce the risk of certain diseases like diabetes, hypertension, osteoporosis, depression, and dementia.

Despite the numerous rewards of regular exercise, many perceive it as a tedious, painful, and even expensive activity. As such, they avoid exercise altogether or opt for quick fixes to achieve their fitness goals.

Keeping physically fit can be enjoyable. Done at home, in the workplace, or anywhere, you can work out exercise routines that require no equipment, cost no exorbitant gym membership fees, and can be seamlessly integrated into your daily life. Here are some examples.

- Walking & Running: Walking, jogging, and running not only help you stay fit but also prompt your body to release endorphins, popularly known as the feel-good hormones. These in turn help reduce stress, anxiety, and symptoms of depression. Best of all, you can walk, jog, or run almost anywhere. So, imaginatively turn any floor into a track, lace up your favorite sports shoes, and go for a rejuvenating run, walk, or jog today.
- Jumping Jacks: Begin by standing with your feet hip-width apart and your arms by your sides. Raise your arms to the sides and straight up in the air while jumping with your feet apart. Then, jump back into the starting position, landing softly on the balls of your feet, and bringing your arms back to the body. This boosts your heart rate and engages multiple muscle groups!
- Squats and Burpees: All variations of squatting exercises, from air squats and squats to front kicks to squat jumps and screamer lunges, will get your heart pumping and get targeted muscles into shape in no time. You can do this in your office, bedroom, at the bus park, or in the restroom. Add this to your daily routine and reap the rewards.

- Push-ups/Mountain Climbs: This exercise works the entire body, especially the lower region. Begin in a pushup position then extend the right leg backward and bring the left leg near the chest with your toes on the ground. Maintain stability with your hands on the ground and level your hips, then swiftly alternate the positions of the legs. Continue this alternating leg movement as long as you can, then rest and repeat.
- Sit-ups, Wall Sits, and Stair climbs: Sit-ups are highly effective for strengthening core muscles, hip flexors, and abdominal muscles. They aid digestion, build muscle, and can help improve posture. Lie on your back with your knees bent and your feet flat on the floor. Place your hands behind your head. Then, use your stomach muscles to lift your torso off the floor and lower yourself back down without letting your back completely touch the floor. Repeat as many times as you desire.

Also, you can do wall sits by leaning against a wall and holding the seated position as a form of exercise for as long as you can handle it. Make a habit of taking the stairs often.

- Additional exercises include planks, Russian twists, inchworms, bear crawls, bicycle crunches, lateral shuffles, trunk rotation, wipers, arm circles, triceps dips, superman, leg raises, and more.

Exercising regularly for at least two and half hours (150 minutes) per week will keep you fit as a fiddle all year round. All that's needed to start is a willing heart.

Faith's PROCLAMATIONS OF HEALING AND HEALTH

“For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Romans 10:10).

Your life and future are actually in your hands. If there's a condition in your body that you don't like, don't tolerate it. Change it! It doesn't matter how hopeless the case seems. With the God-kind of faith, you can change anything. Jesus said you will tell a mountain to move and it will!

Your mouth was not given to you just for eating, drinking, and talking to other people. Your mouth is the instrument given to you to worship God, chart your course in life, and control your body.

If there's a problem in your body, start using your mouth to correct it. Say the same things that God has said. Get up in the middle of the night and talk the Word. When you wake up in the morning, continue speaking God's Word. The devil may try to worsen the situation, but just keep talking. The harder things look, the more you ought to talk because the bigger the problem, the greater its fall will be before you.

CONFESSIONS

Dear Lord, I thank You for the victorious, glorious, and magnificent life to which You have called me. I live triumphantly above sickness, disease, poverty, failure, and death. I walk worthy of this calling today, taking advantage of Your divine power at work in me.

In Christ, I have eternal life, a life without death, sickness, or infirmity. As the Father has life in Himself, so has He given the Son to have life in Himself. I have the Son; therefore, I have life! My body only expresses God's glory and beauty.

I refuse to let sickness abide in God's temple. I am alive! When people see me, they glorify God. I am living the life of victory and dominion that Jesus purchased for me through His vicarious death, burial, and resurrection. Hallelujah!

I am preserved from the machinations of wicked and unreasonable men. I have peace on every side. I am walking in the reality of my divine heritage of peace with health and prosperity in Christ. I live conscious of His grace and presence in my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

I am the righteousness of God, and I have His life in me. My spirit, soul, and body are vitalized by the power and effect of righteousness and the fullness of the God-life that I have received through the Gospel. Glory to God!

Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life. His life and nature that transcend the ordinary human life have been imparted to my spirit. This life that I live is superior to sickness and disease. I live every day in dominion and absolute victory, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

I am filled with God; therefore, there is no room for sickness, disease, anger, jealousy, or anything of darkness in me. I live in Christ's environment, where all I have and experience are life, immortality, health, and prosperity.

I live triumphantly above the devil and the systems of this world! The life of God is at work in me, permeating my whole being. This life destroys sickness, disease, and infirmity. I flourish in health and walk in ever-increasing glory all my days.

Dear Father, thank You for giving me the Word. Thank You for showing me the way to a healthy and prosperous life in Christ through my faith-filled confessions. I reign triumphantly over the negativities of life.

The Lord has given me the power to tread upon serpents and scorpions and over the ability of the enemy. Therefore, Satan has no place in my life, the lives of my loved ones, or in my home because I have been empowered to take charge of my world.

My life is characterized by Christ's resurrection power! There is life in my body! There is life in my family! There is life in my job, my business, and every area of my life!
