SHINE!

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, [God's] own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light (1 Peter 2:9 AMPC).

First, notice the tenses in the phrase: “But ye are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation...” This doesn’t suggest something futuristic: it’s not a promise. It refers to who you are now! You’re a chosen race; you’re dedicated to God. That means you’re sanctified unto Him for glory and for beauty.

You’re His peculiar treasure; plus, you’re royalty. You’re born a king (Revelation 1:6). You belong in the royal family of the Monarch of the Universe. Walk in this consciousness. Kings reign; therefore, reign in life over the devil, sickness, disease, and the circumstances of life.

Our theme verse also says that we’re God’s own purchased, special people. He purchased us by the blood of Jesus (Acts 20:28) so that we may set forth His wonderful deeds and display His virtues and perfections. That staggers the mind! What a calling! It means we’re to exude and display divine excellence – we have the ability to do it.

What’s more? The Bible says He has called us into His marvelous, overwhelming light. This means we dwell in light; we’re children of light. Jesus also stated this in Matthew 5:14: “Ye are the light of the world...” What a blessing! What an honor! What a commission! What a calling! We’re the light of the world!

To get the full import of this truth, you have to first understand what light is. Light is that which makes manifest. Light describes. Ephesians 5:13 says,

“But all things that are reprov’d are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.” In other words, light shows you what’s present. It leads you and gives direction. Light brings fulfillment and joy. When you show up, darkness disappears. Darkness represents sin, sickness, death, evil, and all the negative things that are associated with Satan. Jesus said, “...I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life” (John 8:12).

Like Jesus, you’re the light of the world, and you have the light of life. You’ve been brought out of darkness into the supernatural life of glory. Arise and shine! Refuse to allow the works of darkness to be expressed in your life, for there’s no darkness in your life.

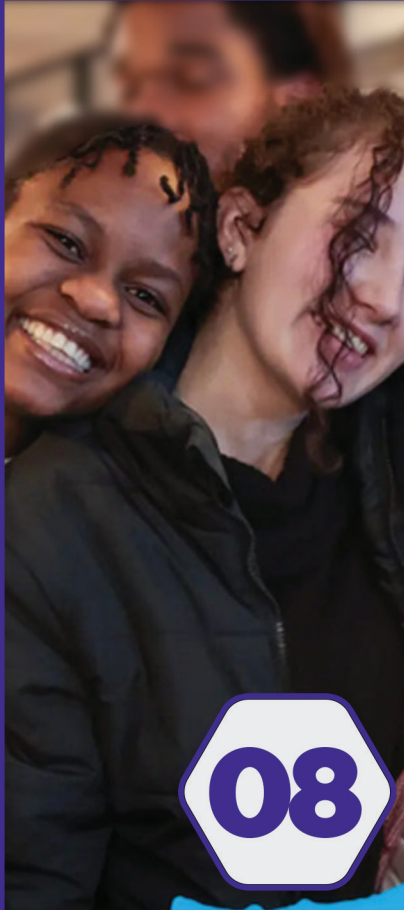

Can you see why your life must be so full of excellence? Everything about you must reveal light, divine elegance, and beauty. There must be a decency of the Spirit about your life because you’re an ambassador of Christ.

Matthew 5:16 says, “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.” Don’t just shine; shine brightly. Let the intensity of your light dazzle and discomfit Satan, his demons, and the negative works of darkness. Let it inspire men to praise and glorify your heavenly Father as they see and experience your good works – your works of righteousness.

PRAYER OF SALVATION

If you want to make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life, say this prayer, believing with all your heart:

“O Lord God, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God. I believe that God raised Him from the dead and I confess that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life from today. I receive, by faith, remission of sins for my soul. Right now, in the Name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, I receive eternal life into my spirit. I am born again!”

If you've just said the prayer, please send an email to info@httnmagazine.org. God bless you.

BORN FOR THIS: The Madagascar Teens Crusade Story

Antananarivo, the vibrant heart of Madagascar, was infused with an unusual excitement as Tiffany Sombiniaina – a Teenspiration ambassador – led a transformative Teens Crusade that brought hundreds of young people together from across the region.

What made this gathering especially remarkable was that it was spearheaded by teens and young leaders themselves, proof of a generation not waiting for permission to serve God but stepping boldly into leadership.

Long before the meeting began, the atmosphere was already charged with intense anticipation. Teens arrived with their friends, carrying hope, questions, and a deep hunger for something more, something real. Some arrived quietly, unsure of what to expect, while others came openly expectant, having heard testimonies from several who had been touched through previous exploits and experiences. Yet, every heart was united by a shared longing for truth and transformation. All came expecting an encounter, and God did not disappoint.

A Citywide Stirring of Revival

The crusade echoed beyond that physical space. For days leading up to the event, Antananarivo was saturated with vibrant publicity: posters stretching across streets, banners draped on buildings, school activations, street mobilization, and social media campaigns that ignited massive buzz across the city.

Teenagers invited classmates, shared digital flyers, and amplified the message online. By the time the crusade began, the city was already talking about it. By the time it ended, the whole nation was paying attention. Teachers, parents, and community members took note of the passion and discipline displayed by the teens, opening doors for future outreaches and partnerships.

A Supernatural Night with Healing Streams

One of the major highlights of this crusade was the rebroadcast of the October 2025 Healing Streams Live Healing Services with Pastor Chris. As it began to play, the gathering instantly shifted into a realm of divine visitation. The Word went forth with power, faith rose in the hearts of the attendees, and God's healing power swept through the venue like a mighty rushing wind.

As the man of God, Pastor Chris, ministered through the screen, the teens responded with unwavering faith, echoing confessions, praying fervently, and receiving the Word as though he were physically present among them.

Young people lifted their hands in worship, many praying in the Spirit after they received the Holy Spirit. Tears of joy streamed down many faces as the tangible love of God enveloped the arena. Teenagers who had battled sickness, depression, fear, and confusion found themselves suddenly free. The healing power of God was everywhere, touching lives deeply and permanently.

The Madagascar Teens Crusade Story

A Harvest of Souls Like Never Before

But the greatest miracle of the night was the unprecedented harvest of souls. Moved by the message and overwhelmed by the presence of the Holy Spirit, scores of young people surged forward to receive salvation. They boldly declared Jesus as Lord, stepping into a new life of purpose, identity, and destiny.

In just one night, Madagascar witnessed the awakening of a generation. Teenagers who walked into the venue unsure of their future walked out as carriers of light, truth, and divine purpose. For many, this was the first time they would publicly confess Christ, marking a defining spiritual milestone that will shape the course of their lives.

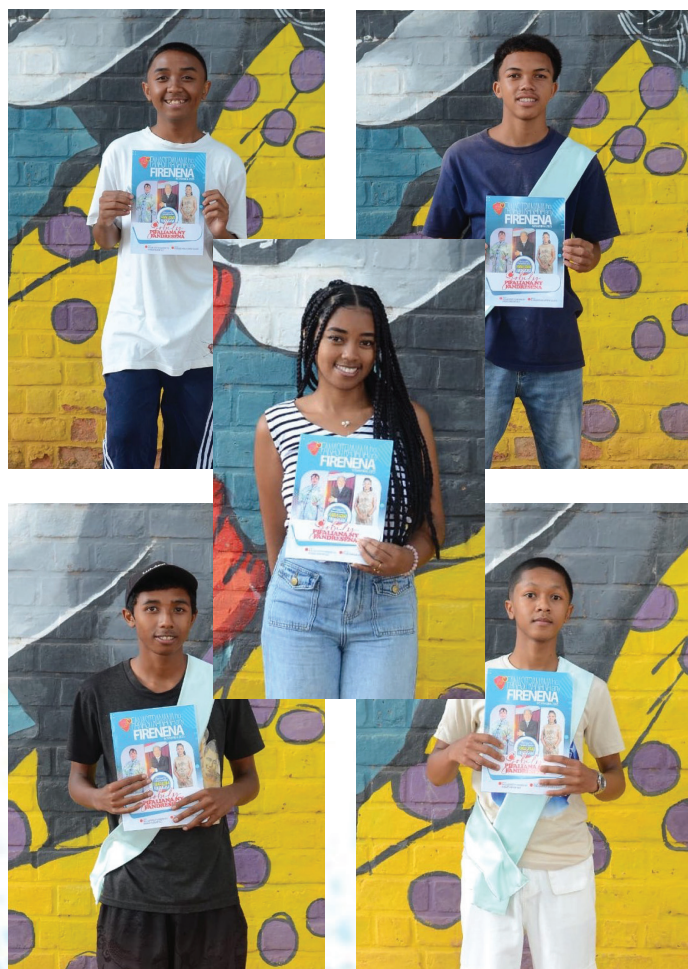

Some testified that they had regained hope for their future. Others shared how the teachings strengthened their faith and gave clarity to their calling. The magazines ensured that the impact of the crusade would not end in one night; it would continue in homes, classrooms, conversations, and personal moments with God.

In the days following the crusade, teens were seen sharing the magazines with siblings, friends, and even parents, multiplying the reach of the message far beyond the event hall.

Tools That Keep the Fire Burning

Another crucial highlight of the crusade was the free distribution of Teenspiration Magazine and Healing to the Nations Magazine – two powerful tools that carry the message of faith and healing. Recipients eagerly flipped through the pages, reading stories that sparked courage in their hearts.

A Generation Rising with Boldness

Through Ambassador Tiffany's Spirit-led leadership and the unstoppable momentum of the Teenspiration movement, Madagascar's young people are rising, bold, healed, inspired, and burning with a fresh passion for the Gospel. This is more than excitement; it is a spiritual awakening.

Teenagers who once felt unseen are now stepping into their God-given purpose. Those who came searching left empowered. Those who arrived quietly left roaring with confidence and conviction. This crusade marked a decisive turning point, a supernatural spark that has ignited a youth revival destined to ripple across neighborhoods, cities, and the entire nation.

Madagascar's young people are no longer spectators in the story God is writing; they are standing courageously at the forefront of His agenda for their generation. They are rising as champions, fearless, faith-filled, and ready to shape the future with the message of Christ.

Equipped with the Word and energized by the Spirit, these teens have already embarked on follow-up meetings, prayer groups, and evangelistic outreaches in their schools and communities.

Now It's Your Turn

Beloved teenager, this is your moment. The Gospel needs your voice, your courage, your faith, and your fire. What God is doing in Madagascar can happen with you. Just as Madagascar's teens answered the call, the next great move of God among young people could begin with you. All you have to do is stand up and lead.

In your school, on your street, and all over your city, this glorious Gospel of Christ must be heard through you. You have been equipped with grace and power for the full preaching of the Gospel. You were born for such a time as this.

Let's Talk About FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is one of God's sweetest gifts to you, and choosing the right friends is an important decision. The people you walk with can shape your thoughts, habits, character, and even future. So, let's talk about the kind of friendships that help you grow into everything God has designed you to be.

🌀 Friends Who Inspire Excellence

Excellence is more than getting good grades or impressing people. It's a quality of the recreated human spirit. God wants you to excel in all things: school, relationships, character, and your walk with Him. The friends you choose play a huge role in whether or not your excellence shines.

Friends who cut corners, avoid responsibility, or despise discipline will weaken your pursuit of excellence. But friends who love integrity, push you to study, encourage your dreams, and help you stay committed to God become catalysts for your success. The Bible says, "...one person sharpens the character of another" (Proverbs 27:17 TPT). Choose friends who bring out the best in you.

🌀 Friends Who Shape Your Speech and Character

Words reveal who you are. Some teens become rude or harsh simply because they're influenced by friends who speak that way. The Bible warns us, "Don't yell at one another or curse each other or ever be rude" (Ephesians 4:31 CEV).

If your friends use cutting or unkind words, that behavior can rub off on you. On the other hand, when you stay close to friends who speak respectfully, kindly, and with wisdom, you become a stronger, gentler, and better version of yourself. True friends help build your character, not tear it down.

🌀 Friends Who Strengthen Your Faith

Sometimes, following Jesus boldly means some friends may tease your faith, distance themselves, or pressure you to compromise. Jesus said this would happen, and He also promised we are never alone.

The wrong friends will try to pull you into worldly patterns. But the right friends will celebrate your growth in Christ, encourage your convictions, and remind you of who you are in God. They help you stand strong when challenges come. The right friends make you braver, not weaker. They help you grow, not shrink.

🌀 Friends Who Help You Stay Grateful

Life becomes much richer when you learn to appreciate the blessings God has placed around you – family, opportunities, friendships, talents, and even the simple joys of everyday life. The Bible says to give thanks in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:18); gratitude is a lifestyle.

Good friends help you celebrate life. They don't complain, compete, or compare. Instead, they bring out joy, laughter, and gratitude in you. When you surround yourself with friends who value God's goodness, you cultivate a happy and thankful heart, a heart that attracts God's favor and keeps you strong in your walk with Him.

True friendship builds. It never destroys. The right friends will push you upward, call out the greatness inside you, and help you bring the blessing of God into everything you do. So, choose wisely.

Staying Fit without the Pressure

Happy New Year! The start of a new year usually comes with loud choruses of “New Year, New Me!” But it doesn’t take long before the pressure becomes too much. Don’t stress out trying to transform overnight. Instead, make simple, sustainable fitness choices that help you feel good, stay strong, and enjoy your life without the pressure.

Why Fitness Doesn’t Have to Be Stressful

A lot of teens think staying fit means intense workouts, strict routines, or chasing unrealistic body goals. But real fitness is about being active in ways that make you happy, not anxious. When you remove the pressure, fitness becomes freedom – freedom to explore your body’s abilities, boost your energy, and feel more confident every day.

The best part? Small movements still count. A 10-minute walk, dancing in your room, stretching before bed; they all add up.

Start Simple, Start Strong

January is a fresh start for everything. Making small but meaningful fitness choices now creates momentum for the rest of the year. The key is picking activities that genuinely make you happy. That’s how you stay consistent.

Here are easy, pressure-free ways to stay fit:

- Move in Ways You Love: You don’t have to jog if you don’t like jogging. Try skipping, walking, swimming, dancing, cycling, jumping jacks, or playing a sport you enjoy.
- Set “Feel-Good” Goals. Forget about your ideal weight, body measurements, or BMI. Go for simple wellness targets like feeling more energized, getting active twice or thrice weekly, improving your sleep routine, and so on.

- Keep It Fun. Try fitness challenges with friends, join a school sport, or do short home workouts that don’t feel like punishment.

The Mental Upside To Staying Active

Staying fit isn’t just about your body; it’s about your mind, too. Exercise releases feel-good hormones (endorphins and dopamine) that help you manage stress, stay focused during school, and boost your confidence. The more you move, the more your mind sharpens.

Consistency Over Intensity

You don’t need the “all or nothing” approach to make progress. What matters the most is consistency. Even small, daily movements can transform your health over time. Think of fitness like brushing your teeth; it is simple, regular, and essential. Start light, start with a little, but start now.

Your Pressure-Free Fitness Challenge

Move your body for 15 minutes every day, doing ANY activity you enjoy. Start however you can, and keep at it until fitness becomes something you look forward to.

Final Word: Your Health, Your Pace

The new year is your chance to rewrite the rules. Staying fit without pressure means choosing a lifestyle that fits you. You’re in control of your body, your goals, and your journey. So, move your way, pace yourself, and celebrate every step.

SPEAK LIFE & HEALTH

One key lesson you must learn is taking responsibility for your spiritual, mental, and physical well-being. Many young people quietly battle habits, addictions, or recurring sickness, but not you because your words carry power.

Always, boldly declare your dominance and authority in Christ. This is a discipline you have to cultivate. Walking in divine health as God has purposed for you must be done intentionally. Instead of saying, “I’m sick,” speak life and health from God’s Word to your body; it will cultivate faith and strengthen your inner resolve.

Do not accept any negative symptom or feeling as your reality. There’s nothing normal about sickness or disease. Shape your reality with your proclamations of faith. When challenges come, respond with the Word by speaking healing, life, and strength. In doing so, you’ll maintain your health and be empowered to live strong and free.

PROCLAIM BOLDLY

Christ lives in me; His life and immortality have been unveiled through me! I am a partaker of the God-life, a life that is superior to sickness, disease, death, and the devil! I walk in dominion today over everything associated with darkness, for I dwell in the realm of light and life.

I am in control and in charge of what happens to my body. I only give expression to the workings of the Holy Spirit in my life and body. Jesus is the Lord of my life; therefore, I live in dominion over sin, sickness, infirmity, and every opposing force.

I recognize and take hold of my divine right to live in health, prosperity, victory, success, dominion, and excellence! I reign and rule over circumstances and align all situations with God’s Word. Every day of my life is full of God’s glory, beauty, and excellence.

Divinity dwells in my physical body. I am a new creation, not subject to the elements of this world. I live the transcendent, divine life, and it flows in every fiber of my being, every cell of my blood, and every bone of my body.

The life of God in me makes me immune to sickness, defeat, and failure. I live victoriously over sickness and disease. With the Word of God in my spirit, I have triumphed gloriously over Satan and the systems of this world. I am a victor! Glory to God!

I have authority over all things. Whether life, health, peace, prosperity, wisdom, or success, all things are mine. I’ve got life in my bones, health in my organs, and agelessness in my body. I enjoy abundant blessings because all things are working together for my good.

God’s ability is inherent in me. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. I go from grace to grace, from strength to strength, and from health to health. Daily, my strength is renewed, and I am always energized for divine health.

God Almighty is my defense and fortress. Satan has nothing in me because I am full of the Holy Spirit at all times. I have a wholesome tongue, and my words sculpt my life according to God’s perfect will. Therefore, I walk in divine health every day.

Eternal life flows from my spirit and permeates my soul and body. No sickness, disease, or infirmity can dwell in my body. I live a highly successful, healthy, glorious, and victorious life in Christ Jesus because I am one spirit with Him.

I am a partaker of God’s divine nature. At all times, I enjoy a life that is consistent with my nature. I enjoy good health, peace, and prosperity as I walk in the full blessings that Jesus wrought for me and delivered when I received salvation. Glory to God!
